- 1.1. Where the context so admits or requires, words denoting the singular include the plural and vice versa and words denoting any gender include all genders.
- 1.2. Clause headings and sub-headings are for ease of reference and do not form part of or affect the interpretation of these Terms and Conditions.
- 1.3. Appendices are part of these Terms and Conditions and are incorporated as an integral part which may be amended by the Supplier from time to time.
- 1.4. References to each party herein include references to its successors in title and permitted assignees and novates.

- 1.5. Any phrase introduced by the terms "including", "include", "in particular", or any similar expression are to be construed as illustrative and do not limit the sense of the words proceeding those terms.
- 1.6. Any reference to "person" includes any natural person, company, body corporate or unincorporate, or other judicial person, partnership, firm, joint venture or trust.
- 1.7. References to any statute or statutory provision are to be construed as a reference to that statute or statutory provision as from time to time amended, consolidated, modified, extended, re-enacted or replaced except to the extent that any amendment, consolidation, modification, extension, re-enactment or replacement after the date the parties entered into a relationship would extend or increase the Supplier's liability. In the event that any liability or duty arising hereunder attaches to more than one Customer, such liability or duty is joint and several.

2. Application of Conditions

- 2.1. Save as otherwise specifically provided, these Terms and Conditions apply:
 - (a) to all Services performed by the Supplier whether directly or indirectly and whether within the area of the Port Premises, Port Limits or elsewhere; and
 - (b) to all other relationships, whether contractual or otherwise and whether created with or without the agreement of the Supplier.
- 2.2. Each Customer warrants that it acts as agent for each and every (other) Owner of the Goods, Equipment or Ship as the case may be and will procure acceptance of these Terms and Conditions by each and every Owner. In the absence of express acceptance by the Customer of these Terms and Conditions, acceptance is implied in the event of the entry or delivery of any Ship, person, Goods, or Equipment into or onto the Port Premises and/or the submission of any documentation via the Community System or otherwise or oral application to the Supplier for entry to the Port Premises or for any Services or the use of any facility by or on behalf of any Customer.
- 2.3. Subject to clauses 2.6 and 2.7, these Terms and Conditions constitute the entire agreement between the Supplier and the Customer and supersede any previous agreement or arrangement between them relating to the subject matter hereof and it is expressly declared that no variation to these Terms and Conditions is effective unless made in writing and signed by the duly authorised representatives of both parties.
- 2.4. No printed terms or conditions of any purchase order or other correspondence or documents issued by the Customer at any time in connection with the Services apply.
- 2.5. These Terms and Conditions are in addition to and not in substitution of the rights and powers of P&OMCL conferred by the Concession.
- 2.6. Where the Customer is issued with any security pass in connection with its access to the Port Premises, the Customer must comply with any additional terms and conditions governing the use of such security pass.
- 2.7. The Supplier may issue separate terms and conditions governing the provision of specialist services. Unless specified otherwise in writing, such additional terms and conditions apply in respect of the specialist services but these Terms and Conditions also continue to apply to the extent they are applicable.
- 2.8. For the avoidance of doubt, where the Customer is acting or purports to act as an agent for a principal then it contracts with the Supplier on these Terms and Conditions.

3. Provision of Services

- 3.1. The Supplier warrants that the Services will be carried out with reasonable skill and care.
- 3.2. The Supplier will exercise reasonable dispatch in executing orders for its Services but will not be liable for any delay whatsoever or howsoever caused.

- 3.3. The Supplier reserves the right to:
- (a) appoint sub-contractors to perform all or any part of the Services;
 - (b) transfer any of its functions in accordance with the provisions of the Concession;
 - (c) at any time before it commences the performance of any Services, serve written notice on the Customer declining to undertake the performance of such Services and giving reasons for so declining;
 - (d) suspend the provision of any Services in the event of any breach of these Terms and Conditions by the Customer;
- 3.4. Subject to clause 11, in the event the Supplier declines to perform the Services or suspends performance of the Services, the Supplier will not have any liability for any loss or damage to Ships, Goods or Equipment, arising out of the non-performance or cessation of performance of the Services whatsoever or howsoever arising.
- 3.5. The Customer acknowledges and agrees that the Supplier has absolute discretion pursuant to the terms of the Concession, in the allocation of berths.

4. Customer's Warranties

- 4.1. Each Customer which avails itself of any Services provided by the Supplier in respect of any Ship, Goods, or Equipment warrants to the Supplier that it has the authority of all Owners having any title to or interest in the Ship Goods or Equipment to accept these Terms and Conditions on their behalf as well as on its own behalf as principal and has specifically notified these Terms and Conditions to such persons.
- 4.2. All such Owners, including finance companies, lessors and others having or claiming to have title to or an interest in Ship, Goods or Equipment or Ship are advised that unless the Supplier is notified in writing of their title or interest in any particular Goods, Equipment or Ship prior to the commencement of any relationship between the Supplier and the Customer, these Terms and Conditions are deemed to have been accepted with the authority of such persons. Such persons' rights over and in respect of the Ship, Goods or Equipment are subordinated to the rights of the Supplier hereunder.
- 4.3. The Customer warrants that it will procure that the rights, exceptions, defences and limits available to the Customer as regards third parties, either by statute or by contractual terms, are extended to the Supplier in so far as lawfully possible in relation to those third parties. For the purpose of this Clause 4.3, this shall, where applicable, include such rights, exceptions, defences and limits available to the Customer as regards any Passengers.
- 4.4. The Customer warrants that its employees (and those of any agents or contractors it may engage) are properly trained and competent (which for this purpose, includes the ability competently to read and speak English so as to be able to carry out the tasks at any time assigned to them including in relation to the giving of any instructions to the Supplier or the inputting of any information into any electronic service or system operated or managed by or on behalf of the Supplier whether such instruction or input of information is given in writing, orally, electronically or by any other means. The Customer further and separately warrants that such persons have the full authority to give such instructions or input such information.
- 4.5. The Customer warrants that it has obtained or will obtain and maintain at its own expense, all necessary licences and authorisations and has complied or will comply with all Applicable Laws relating to the movement of Ships, Goods and or Equipment.
- 4.6. The Customer warrants (unless otherwise specified in writing to the Manager) that any Ship, Goods or Equipment which it delivers, directs to or causes to be within Port Limits or upon the Port Premises:
- (a) are not dangerous or hazardous to health, property or the environment or poisonous, flammable or liable to become so in the form in which they are delivered and/or in which they are to remain while within Port Limits or on the Port Premises;
 - (b) are not toxic or liable to give off any injurious emission, including dust, gas, fumes, liquid or radiation;

- (c) are not infested, verminous, rotten or subject to fungal attack and not liable to become so while within Port Limits or on the Port Premises;
 - (d) are not over-heated or under-heated or liable to become so while within Port Limits or on the Port Premises;
 - (e) will not contaminate or cause danger, injury, pollution or damage to any person or any other Ship, Goods, or Equipment within Port Limits or the Port Premises or the environment adjacent thereto or more generally;
 - (f) do not require for their safekeeping any special protection (other than as may be agreed in writing between the Supplier and the Customer);
 - (g) contain no unauthorised controlled drugs, contraband, pornographic or other illegal matter;
 - (i) are fit for their intended purpose and are in a fit and proper condition to be handled or otherwise dealt with by the Supplier, its employees, agents and contractors.
- 4.7. The Customer warrants that it will immediately inform and keep informed the Manager of any occurrence or incident which might affect the safe and efficient operation of Ship(s) within the Port Limit or on the Port Premises or other persons or result in adverse environmental impact.
- 4.8. The Customer must take, at its own cost, such reasonable steps with respect to that Customer, or that Customer's Ship, Goods or Equipment to prevent, minimise, control or eliminate any danger, inconvenience or adverse environmental impact as may be required by the Supplier.
- 4.9. In respect of any Ship of which the Customer is the Owner, the Customer warrants and undertakes to ensure that the Ship is operated in compliance with all Applicable Laws and international standards in relation to safety, stability, seaworthiness, fitness for purpose and security, including any regulations introduced pursuant to the ISPS Code.

5. Hazardous Goods and Waste

- 5.1. No waste material or Goods of a dangerous, hazardous or poisonous nature will be directly handled by the Supplier except by prior agreement with the CPA Port Manager and then only in accordance with the conditions prescribed by the CPA Port Manager and all Applicable Laws.
- 5.2. The Customer warrants that any waste material or Goods of a dangerous, hazardous or poisonous nature or any Equipment containing such material or Goods are properly marked with any warning as to the hazardous nature of any contents and the precautions to be taken in handling the same (in the event of the escape of anything injurious therefrom) as may be necessary to ensure the safety and health of all persons likely to handle or come into contact with the same.

6. Charges

- 6.1. The Supplier shall charge the Charges for the Services in accordance with the provisions of Part 2 of these Terms and Conditions.
- 6.2. In addition to these provisions, the Supplier shall be entitled to charge the Customer additional fees for accidents or spills caused by the Customers, general non-performance or for breach of these Terms and Conditions or any Applicable Laws or for not acting with reasonable skill and prudence which may result to delays, costs or any additional work to be performed by the Supplier.

7. Supplier Liability

- 7.8. It is a condition precedent to the liability of the Supplier that the Supplier is notified in writing to the Manager by email to: managency.pomaritime.com
- (a) of any damage alleged to have been caused to a Ship and to permit inspection thereof prior to sailing from Port Premise or leaving the Port Limit;
- 7.9. These Terms and Conditions and in particular the liability regime are intended to inure for the benefit of both the Supplier and its employees, agents and contractors to which end the Supplier contracts on these Terms and Conditions on its own behalf and as agent for and trustee for the benefit of its employees, agents and contractors. The Customer agrees that the exclusions and limitations on the Supplier's liability regime benefits the Supplier's contractors, employees and agents and anyone else who may be vicariously liable for act or omissions of such a person.
- 7.10. The Customer is under a duty to mitigate its losses, including for example, to obtain salvage.

8. Customer Indemnity

- 8.1. The Customer is liable for and will indemnify and hold harmless the Supplier against any and all fines, claims, including claims for personal injury and/or death, actions, liabilities, losses, damages and expenses (including legal expenses) incurred, whether or directly or indirectly, by the Supplier, its employees, servant, agents or sub-contractors and howsoever caused, even if contributed to by the negligence of the Supplier, its employees, servant, agents or sub-contractors, which arise out of or in connection with:
- (a) accidents, spills or delays caused by the Customers, the failure of the Customer or any Owner to comply with any of these Terms and Conditions or the requirements of any Applicable Laws or the taking of any step which the Supplier considers to have been reasonably required to remedy the same or to comply with the requirements of any authority in any jurisdiction;
- (b) any act wherever carried out, omission or instruction, misrepresentation, negligence, fraud, wilful misconduct or breach of statutory duty of the Customer, any Owner or any other person interested in the Ship, Goods, or Equipment;
- (c) damages resulting from the Customer's use of the berths or any of the Port Premises.

8.2. Any sums payable hereunder are chargeable to and payable by the Customer in addition to and subject to the same provisions as the Charges.

9. Payment

9.1 Customer must provide an unconditional and irrevocable bank guarantee to and in favor of the Supplier with a validity of minimum one year from 29 January 2018 or later, from a "First Class" local bank in Cyprus, and the value of the BG will be decided on the monthly average turnover of the customer.

9.2 Unless otherwise agreed in writing all charges invoiced must be paid within 14 days of the invoice date.

9.3 In all cases where a bank guarantee is not provided by the Customer in favour of P&O Maritime Cyprus Limited, full payment for Services proposed, must be settled immediately on receipt of invoice(s).

9.4 The Customer must pay or must procure that any other person liable for the Supplier's Charges (including, where applicable, agents) pays to the Supplier by bank transfer to an account specified by the Supplier, or as otherwise agreed in writing, all sums immediately when due without deduction, withholding, abatement, set-off, or any counterclaim for any reason whatsoever, whether arising in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty or otherwise, save as may be required by law, or due to overpayment by the Customer or an undisputed credit owed by the Supplier to the Customer.

9.5 Notwithstanding any agreement by the Supplier to collect charges from any person other than the Customer, the Customer remains liable to the Supplier for payment of all charges when due.

9.6 All payments hereunder must be in Euros and must be paid by way of a bank transfer to Suppliers bank account with the Bank of Cyprus, as per details below:

Account No.	3570-2288-5737 (0189)

9.7 Interest is payable upon all sums payable by the Customer which remain unpaid after the due date at a rate of 4.5 percent per month.

9.8 In the event that any payment is not made within the periods set out in clause 2.2, or such other period as has been agreed in writing, then the Supplier is entitled to immediately recover from the Customer or other person liable for the Supplier's Charges all sums then due to or levied by the Supplier (including any accrued interest and other Charges properly levied in accordance with these Terms and Conditions) and all losses arising to the Supplier as a result of such non-payment. In addition the Supplier reserves the right to suspend or withdraw Services.

9.9 All sums payable under these Terms and Conditions are exclusive of value added tax and any other duty or tax, which is (if and to the extent applicable) payable by the Customer at the rate and in the manner from time to time prescribed by law.

9.10 If the Customer ceases to trade (either in whole, or as to any part or division involved in the performance of these Terms and Conditions), or becomes insolvent, has a receiver, administrative receiver, administrator or manager appointed over the whole or any part of its assets or business, makes any composition or arrangement with its creditors, takes or suffers any similar action in consequence of debt or an order or resolution is made for its dissolution or liquidation (other than for the purpose of solvent amalgamation or reconstruction) or, where the Customer is an individual, the Customer becomes bankrupt or makes any composition or arrangement with its creditors, or anything analogous happens in any jurisdiction, then:

- 9.11 the Supplier is entitled to immediately encash the bank guarantee and recover the balance, if any from the Customer or any other person liable for the Supplier's Charges (notwithstanding that the periods stated above or any period of credit extended to the Customer may not have expired) all sums then due to the Supplier (including any accrued interest and other Charges properly levied in accordance with these Terms & Conditions.
- 9.12 the Supplier may, without prejudice to any other remedy or right available to it, delay, withhold or refuse to provide any Services.
- 9.13 Notwithstanding clause 9.9, if the Supplier reasonably considers that Charges levied or to be levied will not be paid within the periods stated in clause 9.2, the Supplier is entitled forthwith upon giving the Customer notice in writing, to withdraw any period of credit extended to the Customer or other person liable for the Supplier's Charges and to require payment of all such charges forthwith upon receipt of the said notice or subsequent invoice.
- 9.14 Any bona fide query to be raised by the Customer on any invoice issued by the Supplier must be made in writing within 10 days of the date of the invoice or the Customer will be deemed to have accepted the invoice.

10. Implementation

The tariff mechanism (including the Ceiling Tariffs in respect of Regulated Tariffs) shall be effective from 29 January 2017

11. Data Protection and Number Plate Recognition

- 11.1. For the purposes of security, safety and crime prevention, CCTV cameras and ANPR (automatic number plate recognition) cameras are used throughout the Port Premises and the information and images they produce are monitored and recorded.
- 11.2. By entering into the Port Premises, all persons consent to the recording, storage and use of images and data relating to them and their vehicles for the purpose of security, safety and crime prevention. Data and images may also be passed to the police, Customs & Excise and similar third parties in connection with such purposes. Data and images will not be sold to any third parties.
- 11.3. The Customer undertakes to notify all Owners of the terms set out in this Clause 11.

12. Governing Law, Complaints and Jurisdiction

- 12.1. The construction, validity and performance of these Terms and Conditions and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with these Terms and Conditions, their subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) is to be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Cyprus, save where specifically mentioned.
- 12.2. The Supplier maintains effective and transparent procedures for the reasonable and prompt handling of complaints or grievances received from all Customers, keeps a record of each complaint or grievance and the measures taken for the respective resolution, as applicable.
- 12.3. The Cyprus courts shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate any unresolved claims or disputes arising out of or related to these Terms and Conditions (including non-contractual disputes or claims), however the Supplier will have the right, as claimant, to initiate proceedings against the Customer either (a) in the jurisdiction of the courts of the country of the principal domicile of the Customer or (b) in the jurisdiction of the courts of the country in which any ship or other asset (including a bank account) of the Customer is, or may, at the instigation of the Supplier be detained or frozen.

13. General

- 13.1. The failure of the Supplier to enforce or to exercise at any time or for any period of time any term of or any right pursuant to these Terms and Conditions does not constitute, and is not to be construed as, a waiver of such term or right and in no way affects the Supplier's right later to enforce or to exercise it.

- 13.2. If any provision of these Terms and Conditions is found to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, such term will, insofar as it is severable from the remaining terms, be deemed omitted from these Terms and Conditions and will in no way affect the legality, validity or enforceability of the remaining terms.
- 13.3. Any Charges agreed with the Supplier are commercially confidential and the Customer may not disclose Charges to any third party without the prior written consent of the Supplier, except where disclosure is required by a court or other authority of competent jurisdiction provided that, to the extent it is legally permitted to do so, the Customer gives the Supplier as much notice of such disclosure as possible and, where notice of disclosure is not prohibited and is given in accordance with this clause, it takes into account the reasonable requests of the Supplier in relation to the content of such disclosure.
- 13.4. The Supplier may update or amend any of these Terms and Conditions from time to time. The Supplier and Customer is bound in respect of any particular visit, delivery or entry to the Port Limits and/ or Port Premises or provision of a Service by the Terms and Conditions published and in force at the time and date on which that visit, delivery, entry or provision of Service is made.

14. Bribery and Corruption

The Customer represents and warrants that it and its agents, directors, employees, officers and sub-contractors will comply with all Applicable Laws relating to anti-bribery and anti-corruption including but not limited to the Prevention of Corruption Law, Cap 161 (Relevant Regulations) and will not engage in any activity, practice or conduct which would constitute an offence under the Relevant Regulations.

15. Notices

- 15.1. Subject to any express provisions set out above, where any notice is required to be given or may be given under these Terms and Conditions, such notice must be given:
- a) in respect of the Supplier, in writing to: POMCyprusManager@pomaritime.com
 - b) in respect of the Customer to the registered office of the Customer or the branch or agency office of the Customer through which the Customer has dealt with the Supplier in respect of the provision of the Services.
